PINNACLE

Little Gonzo,
I know we've picked on you a lot but you know we are just getting on your case. Here's to your years at HHHS. It does not seem it now, but they are the best years of your life. Do us all a favor, don't follow in your brothers foot steps Big Pete '88

Little Gonzo,
To a cool dude and good friend. Remember all the good times + partying at your house. Good luck in all ya do.

Steve

Gary,
To a guy I met a long time ago And found out you are a cool guy. Good Luck to you in the future and Every thing you do.
Keith

Gary,

Good luck dude

Troy Ronberger

Little Gonzo

To a nice guy I got to know and that I got to school with this year in school. Have fun next year out of high school. Have fun since I see you in awhile. Lots of luck and success in whatever you do.

Troy

"Ye Olde Schoolmaster"

James A. Gilmartin
Superintendent
21 years at Hamburg

Centuries ago, Galileo said "You cannot teach a man anything, you can only help him to find it within himself."

And that's what your teachers have been attempting to do since you entered the school for the first time. They have tried to "educate" you — to develop your talents and your skills and your habits to you can assume a "place" on this earth.

I sincerely hope we have helped you to "find yourself" and have guided you toward fulfillment of your dreams, and I urge you to live each day to its fullest, remembering the ancient Arabic proverb — "The dawn does not come twice to awaken a man."

You know you're a senior when . . .

you start having nightmares about selling shoo-fly pies.

half of America's armed forces recruiters call you up.

you're black and blue from the 7th graders' big book bags slamming into you in the hall.

you get measured for your cap and gown.

your grades resemble the stock market crash.

I'll never forget when . . .

Mr. Fisher fell out of the window in 9th grade Algebra II.

Mrs. Price's class and Mr. Sakusky's class had the "Tastes great!", "Less filling!" contests.

the advanced physics class popped popcorn over the Fischer burner.

Charlie Correll pulled the shower cord in chemistry class.

a teacher told me to go to the office and to sit on a green chair but I could only find orange ones.

You know you're in trouble when . . .

the phone rings and the teacher glances at you and says, "Yes he is!"

you realize the teacher you were doing impressions of is standing behind you.

your dog really did wreck your homework.

you're running down the hall to lunch and Dr. Lenick sticks his head around the corner.

The Hawkettes returned 14 seniors this year. They won their division with a record of 10- 2, their first undefeated season. Also for the first time in Hamburg's history, the hockey tea won a county championship by defeating Daniel Boone 1-0. The Hawkettes placed fourth districts, qualifying them for the state playoffs. After winning their first game by defeati Kishacoquillas 2-0, they lost to state champ Perkiomen Valley 2-1. Congratulations to Brook Altland and Tammy Balthaser for making the All-Division and All-County teams and to L Correll and Michele Morgan for making the All-Division team. Brooke scored 25 goals th season to become Hamburg's all-time leading scorer.

The season was one plagued by injuries but with 34 underclassmen returning, next year should be much brighter. The one bright spot was the passing of Jeff Haag who set a school record of 862 yards. We say "good bye" to co-captains Jeff Schrack and Steve Hart along with other seniors Charles Correll, Dave Madeira, Rick Jacoby, Rick Boltz, Brian Herbert, Steve Schwank and Keith Fry.

The varsity soccer team finished 1987 with a 10-9-0 record. Highlights of the season were a 2-1 defeat of Wilson and a 3-2 overtime win against Conrad Weiser. Karl Rightmyer was the leading goal scorer with 11. The 10-9-0 season gave the senior players a winning record in all four years of soccer at Hamburg High. The future of soccer continues to look bright for the HAWKS.

Season records don't always show the true story of a team. This year's team worked hard under great pressure from strong teams in our league. We had strong showings in many matches only to fall short in the end. Hamburg can be proud of this year's team.

A big thank you to David Christman and Carrie Francis for singing the National Anthem at all home games.

The 1987-88 basketball season was a year of rebuilding. There was only one returning starter-leaving Hamburg with a young and inexperienced team. Some highlights of the season were Jeff Haag making the all-star team in the Hamburg Tournament and Aaron Williamson being named the MVP in the Hamburg and Conrad Weiser Tournaments. Aaron led the scoring with 175 points in league games. Best of luck to seniors Mike Bashore and Steve Balatgek.

The 1987-88 school year was a very busy one for the German Club. The club participated in many activities, including ice-skating, rollerskating, a swimming party at Kutztown University, a bowling party, and the annual dinner at Gambrinus Restaurant. The club, along with the other foreign language clubs, sponsored a foreign language dance in March. The club's fundraiser was a pie sale, the biggest success in the club's history. In conjunction with the other language clubs, the German Club sold silk roses for St. Valentine's Day. They also sponsored a soft pretzel stand as this year's May Day activity.

Glee Club sings "Infant Holy, Infant Lowly" at the Christmas concert.

Mame

Mame was the school musical directed by Mrs. Ruth Rissinger, Mr. Paul Breidenstein, and Miss Sharon. It is the hilarious story of an orphan, Patrick Dennis (Tony Donatala) and his nanny, Agnes Gooch (Jenny Strunk) who come to live with Mame Dennis (Doreen Travaglini). Dwight Babcock (Matt Haag) tries to keep Patrick away from Mame's "riff-raff" friends, but never totally succeeds. After the Crash, Mame meets Beauregard Burnside (Nathan Domagalski), a southern aristocrat, whom she later marries. When he dies, Mame returns to New York to find an older Patrick (Chris Thomas) ready to marry a high-society snob. What happens next? Mame's adventures with Vera Charles (Coco Fister), M. Lindsay Woolsey (Chris Budden), Ito (Eric Miller), and the rest lead from one madcap adventure to another.

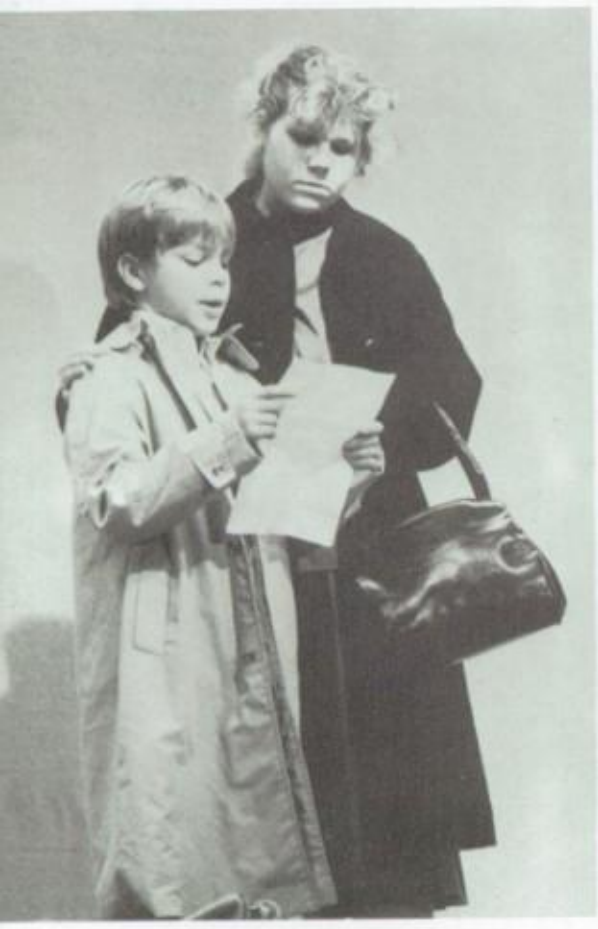
The Cast

Last-minute backstage instructions

The cast toasts — "It's Today!"

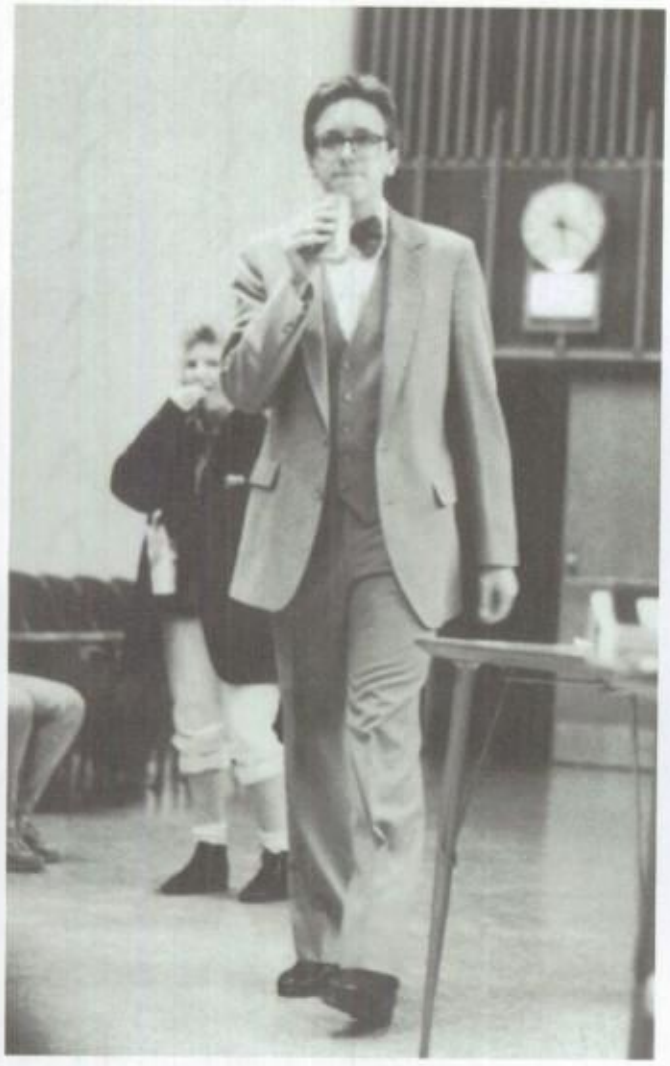
ame has invited Babcock and the Upsons to her house to break up Patrick's engagement. Will she succeed?

"... and we're living, and we're well, gang ..."



"If I say that your fangs are showing, Mame, pull in your claws ..."

"... and just how old are you Vera? The truth!"



Rest break!

". . . Life can also be lived on a weekday, so don't depend on a holiday date . . ."

Beauregard Jackson Pickett Burnside meets Mame — love at first sight!

Orchestra members are also important!
